Welcome to Greensboro

You are participating in history. This is the first time a USKBTC Traveling Specialty has ever been held in North Carolina and we will make sure you enjoy your stay. We will have an event on Saturday evening and details will be announced during the shows....there might even be Kerryoke!

The judging schedule was designed for a relaxing 3 days. Coffee will be available along with some breakfast treats around 8:30 and we will cook-out on Friday and Saturday and a special treat on Sunday.

We are thrilled with the entry! Thank you for supporting this very special(ty) weekend.

What To Bring to the Shows

If you have a pop-up tent.... bring it! If it rains, we will move the ring under the Shelter so grooming will be limited plus they help with social distancing. If you have a portable generator.... bring it! The electric is limited and will not support dryers. We plan hospitality all days including lunch but if you wish to contribute with goodies please do.

Good to Know

1. If you are bringing an RV make your reservations directly with Hagan Stone Park. Please let us know if you need a lift to get your gear to the Shelter. Email carl@ashby3.com.
2. Directions-once in the Park directions to Shelter 5 are well marked. Hagan Stone will appear in your GPS. If you are staying in Greensboro we suggest you take I-85 North toward Burlington, exit on 421 south and then exit on Neely Road. Your GPS will take over once you get on Neely Road.
3. North Carolina restaurants are open. There are some other activities this weekend so there may be waits to get in.
4. If you decide to stay in a hotel the LaQuinta in Greensboro offers a rate of $115/night. To get this rate you must make your reservation with Wayne, the general manager and mention Jaimie's name. This is furniture market week so some hotels have jacked up the rates.

La Quinta Inn & Suites by Wyndham Greensboro - 7905 Triad Center Dr, Greensboro, NC 27409 336-840-1550

5. Business casual dress (no ties required)

RV Parking

There is RV parking available with hookups in the park. It is some distance from the show area. In addition, the Park gates are locked around 6:30 making it difficult to leave for dinner, etc. If you chose to park in the RV lot, we will provide a way to get your gear and dog(s) to the Show Site. RV Reservations need to be made directly with the park. See link below.

Hagan Stone Park

Located south of Greensboro, NC this county park is a beautiful setting for shows dedicated exclusively to Kerry Blue Terriers. Cut and paste this link <https://www.guilfordcountync.gov/our-county/county-parks/hagan-stone-park> for a complete description of the park and its various amenities. The average high temperature in October is 74 degrees....perfect Kerry weather.

A large shelter is available for grooming and has adjacent restrooms. We encourage the use of pop up tents under the trees to facilitate social distancing. The site overlooks a large pond and is surrounded by shade trees.
